

ETHICS

Policy and Society

Legal Loopholes and Other Corporate Strategy Conundrums: A Business Ethics Perspective

Don Mayer, J.D., LL.M.
Arsht Visiting Ethics Scholar

November, 3, 2010
Strauss Conference Room, School of Business
4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Donald Mayer, J.D., LL.M., a specialist in International and Comparative Law and Professor-in-Residence at the Daniels College of Business at the University of Denver (UD), has been named UM's first Arsht Visiting Ethics Scholar. Prof. Mayer's areas of expertise include corporate governance and corruption, international business and ethics, constitutional and employment law, political and legislative ethics, business ethics and global capitalism, corporate social responsibility, and military security and ethics.

For directions and further information, contact Evaline Fornino at 305-284-6105 or efornino@miami.edu.